(Through Head, Department of English & Dean, School of Humanities)

Dear Sir,

Sub: Application for sabbatical leave – reg

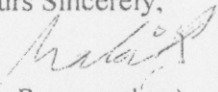

I joined as faculty of the Department of English on 11 June 2003 and I have completed 7 years in NEHU, Shillong. Prior to joining NEHU, I have worked for 8 years and 9 months as Lecturer in Assam University, Silchar. All these years, I have attended to my duties to the best of my abilities.

I am pleased to inform you that my book proposal "Understanding Maria Irene Fornes' Theatre" has been accepted by Common Ground Publishers, Illinois, United States of America. For updating of resources and library work, I need to be relieved from my routine academic duties. In addition to this, I am also interested in bringing out another book related to terror in women's writing, the ideas that emerged during my work on the paper entitled "Representations of Terror in Women's Writing: A Gender Perspective," to be presented at the CWWN's Third Biennial International Conference on "Contemporary Women's Writing: New Texts, Approaches, and Technologies" to be held in San Diego, California. I found that there is considerable literature available on the theme of terror, especially after 9/11.

To enable me complete both these projects, I need to visit libraries, both in India and abroad, to collect primary and secondary materials, and also devote full attention to my research. This will not be possible, unless I get totally relieved from my teaching responsibilities, at least for a year. Hence, I wish to apply for sabbatical leave from 15 November 2010 for a period of twelve months, immediately after completion of the courses (I & III semesters).

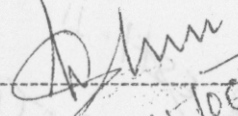

I would appreciate it very much if you could grant my application for sabbatical leave as early as possible, so that I can make my travel plans abroad in advance. I have also enclosed a copy of the acceptance letter from the aforesaid publisher.

Yours Sincerely,

(Mala Renganathan)
