

THE NORTH-EASTERN HILL UNIVERSITY STATUTES

(ii) Each association shall adopt its constitution and from time to time make amendments in its constitution once adopted and brought in force:

Provided that no such constitution once adopted or an amendment passed thereto shall come into force unless the same has been approved by the Executive Council.

(3). No association shall act in any manner whatsoever which may bring down the image of the University and which may be detrimental to the achievements of the objectives of the University laid down under the North-Eastern Hill University Act, 1973.

(4). The University may derecognise or suspend recognition of an association for any good and valid reason including breach of conditions of the constitution, the violation of the provisions of the Act, Statutes or Ordinances of the University.

(5). The association shall not raise individual grievances. The association may, however, raise collective grievances.¹

Students’ Association

45 (1). The following Union may be established by the Students of the University.

(i) Students’ Union of the University.

(2). The University may recognise the Union in accordance with the procedures as may be laid down in an Ordinance subject to the following conditions:

(i) The membership of the Union shall be open to all categories of students of the University including Research Scholars.

(ii) The Union shall adopt its constitution and from time to time make amendments in its constitution once adopted and brought in force.

Provided that no such constitution once adopted or an amendment passed thereto shall come into force unless the same has been approved by the Executive Council.

(3). The Union shall not act in any manner whatsoever which may bring down the image of the University and which may be detrimental to the achievements of the objectives of the University as laid down under the North-Eastern Hill University Act, 1973.

(4). The University may derecognise or suspend recognition of the Union for any good and valid reason including breach of conditions of the constitution, the violation of the provisions of the Act, Statutes or Ordinances of the University.

(5). The Union shall not raise individual grievances. The Union may, however, raise collective grievances.²

1. Introduced vide MHRD letter No. F.8-42/95-Desk(U) of 30th October, 1996.

2. Introduced vide MHRD letter No. F.8-2/93-Desk(U) of 28th November, 1996.