Sub: Regarding suitable leave from 26th Nov to 18th Dec 2007 to continue my Royal Society post doctoral research up to end of winter vacation

Respected Sir,

With due respect I would like to inform you that I am a lecturer in Chemistry in the Department of Basic Sciences & Social Sciences. Presently, I am in UK, at the University of Manchester and working as a Royal Society, postdoctoral fellow as per your three months leave (upto 25th November). I am grateful to you for the kind permission. I need your favour to complete my research work. My work is on progress, and I am trying to complete the project. I feel it needs another 2-3 months to reach in a conclusive result of my ongoing project. Therefore, I earnestly request you to consider the in between days (26th Nov to 18th Dec) as special/ suitable leave so that I can continue the winter vacation time as station leave to complete the project.

I shall be obilized to you for your help and co-operation to enrich my academic and research career.

I am eagerly looking forward to your kind reply.

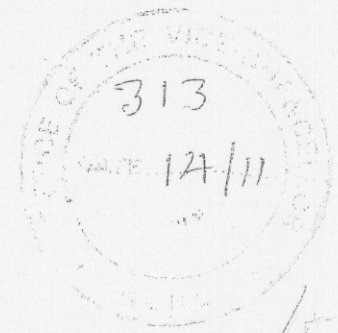

Thanking you with my respectful regards

Yours faithfully,

Lokman Hakim Choudhury
