

(iii) Facility for improvement under the Regulation of the Degree Course (Part I and Part II)-proposed amendment of Clause 4(II) thereof.

In regards the existing regulation of the degree course (Part I and Part II Exam.), the improvement facility as requested by the KSU to clarify the same is reproduced as below for ready reference.

i) For the General candidates, the facility for improvement shall be extended only to those securing less than 45% marks in aggregate, in one of the Elective subjects concerned. If eligible such candidates shall have to appear in all the papers of the concerned subject, irrespective of the marks obtained in each paper.

ii) For the Honours candidates, the facility for Improvement shall be extended to those securing less than 45% marks in aggregate in the Honours paper (Eight papers). If eligible, such candidates shall be required to appear in all the Five Core papers (Honours), irrespective of the marks obtained in each paper.

According to the letter from the KSU (Vide No:KSU/Edu/2001 dated 10 Feb, 2001) It propose necessary changes in Clause 4 (ii) for allowing the student to appear for Improvement in three (3) general papers at the Major subject, since the marks of the three (3) general papers are also counted in the total percentage with the Five (5) Honours paper.

In consideration of the above the Advisory Committee Examination matter which met on 12th March '01, has recommended that the benefit of repeating all the (8) eight papers in Honours (including general papers) be allowed for improvement the rule to be amended has been recommended to read as follows:-

" Both for the General and Honours candidates, the facility for improvement shall be extended only to those securing less than 45% marks in aggregate in one for the Elective subjects concerned. If eligible such candidates shall have to appear in all the papers of the concerned subjects. For General all the three concerned papers and for Honours all the eight papers i.e., 5+3, irrespective of the marks obtained in each paper"

The matter was placed before the 65th meeting of the Academic Council and the Council Resolved to approved the same as per Annexure-'A'

The matter is placed before the Council for consideration.
