

SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES

Department of English.

The Department of English of NEHU was established in 1973. It is the first and the only Department of the School of Languages. The Department of English at Kohima, Nagaland was inaugurated in 1979. This is a teaching cum research Department. The Department has been trying over the years to contribute to the sociocultural development of the people of the North Eastern Region by catering to the educational needs of the people of the hill areas.

Achievements of the Department :

The Department feels proud to place on record the fact that one of the faculty members, Miss Janita War, was awarded a Commonwealth Scholarship to pursue doctoral research at the University of Edinburg, U.K.

Thirty-five students were in the M.A. final class and thirty-five were admitted in the M.A. previous class. Three students who were admitted to the M. Phil Programme have successfully completed semesters I and II and now they are doing their M. Phil dissertations.

Department of English at Aizawl :

The Mizoram Campus of this University came into being after a formal inauguration by Dr. A. K. Dhan, Vice-Chancellor on October 19, 1979. The Department aims at the intellectual progress and academic advancement of the students of the region in the field of Language and Literature.

All the students who joined the Course are Scheduled Tribes of Mizoram. As the Department is just one year old, only the first semester examination had been conducted. The Department looks forward to producing able students in the field of Language and Literature in the near future and hopes to organise seminars symposia, guest lectures and research programmes. The Department is related by the English Department of the Shillong Headquarter.

The Department at the moment is facing some difficulties—scarcity of teaching staff, shortage of Library books and accommodations. The University is trying to pull together all the resources to solve these problems.
